

PEGASUS BAY

FINE WAIPARA WINE

ARIA Late Picked Riesling

What the press say

2008

★★★★★ Peach, honey and mandarins with a mineral delicacy. Lovely freshness on the finish balanced by residual sugar. Delicious.

- Rebecca Gibb, Decanter, UK

★★★★★ Top Tip “Stunning – THE wine of the tasting and a sure fire GOLD in any tasting it enters. The flavours just go on and on and the mouthfeel is oily and opulent. You MUST try this.”

- Tizwine.com, NZ

2007

17.5/20 points "Deep lemon with lots of evolution on the nose. Honeyed wine with lots of acidity and lots of sugar - probably very difficult to make and much more complex and ambitious than most. Bravo! A real product of the vineyard. Very zesty. Hovers between medium dry and medium sweet".

- Jancis Robinson, U.K.

★★★★★ "...This wine underscores the multi-talented nature of Riesling. Poised, balanced and far from sugar dominant..."

- Cuisine Magazine, NZ

97/100 points "Pegasus Bay, in the Waipara region near Christchurch, makes some of New Zealand's most exotic wines. This is a magnificent sweet wine, perfumed beautifully and beguiling. Pristine fruit flavours and perfect balance in the mouth."

- Huon Hooke, Sydney Morning Herald, Good Living, Australia

★★★★★ "The 2007 Vintage is an elegant, slightly honeyed Waipara wine with lovely ripeness and richness...great harmony."

- Michael Cooper's Buyer's Guide 2009

★★★★★ - WineState Magazine, Australia
